

House Resolution No. 224

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of Show-Me State residents who have admirably dedicated themselves to fulfilling the highest standards of good citizenship in their local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Dale Hyde of Supreme Oil Company has distinguished himself as recipient of the Business Person of the Year award given by the Marshfield Area Chamber of Commerce; and

Whereas, known as a man of his word, Dale Hyde illustrates the epitome of dedication and integrity in his daily life; and

Whereas, in addition to his illustrious work as an oil jobber who has owned Supreme Oil Company since 1956, Dale Hyde also owns Jim & Wayne's and Young Conoco in Marshfield, is a member of the Lions Club and the Methodist Church, and serves on the Webster County Health Unit Board and the Senate 40 Board; and

Whereas, Dale Hyde received his well-deserved Business Person of the Year award from presenter Curt Weaver of C & N Convenience Store at ceremonies conducted on Saturday, January 18, 2003; and

Whereas, Dale Hyde's phenomenal success as a businessman is equaled only by his loving devotion to family as the husband of Linda and the father of Neill, Dena, and Jill:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the selection of Dale Hyde for the Business Person of the Year award by the Marshfield Area Chamber of Commerce and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations and best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Dale Hyde of Supreme Oil Company of Marshfield, Missouri.
